Release

Parent or legal guardian, please read the following information carefully. No child will be admitted into the 2009 Camp of Champs unless either a parent or legal guardian signs this form. By signing this form, you are releasing all claims for injuries that the participant may sustain through this program. I agree to assume full risk and to waive and release all claims I and/or the participant may have against Arkansas Athletes Outreach. This release also includes AAO's agents, staff, sponsors, volunteers and employees from any such claims resulting from injury, damages or loss sustained on account of participation in any AAO program or event. I understand that I am responsible for all personal medical insurance and that the participant's family must cover all medical costs incurred. I hereby give permission for the camp staff to secure medical treatment for my child. Snacks or beverage might be served at camp. If my child has food allergies, this is my responsibility. I grant permission for my child's image to be used in any future publications, print or video. I have read and understand the Parent Information. I understand the AAO team is planning for a great time at camp for my child!

Parent Information

About AAO

Arkansas Athletes Outreach is a non-denominational sports ministry that seeks to build Champions for Life through the influence of sports.

About Our Camps

AAO provides top-notch sports camps that emphasize activities and sports challenges. All camps are conducted in a fun and wholesome, yet structured Christian environment.

About the Staff

AAO staff members have over 25 years of camp experience. In addition, AAO has selected and trained the finest athlete leaders and staff who have a passion for young people and a love for sports.

What to Wear

Comfortable athletic gear: shorts, t-shirts, socks, court shoes (no cleats permitted). Campers need to come prepared for swimming pool and/or wet activities. We request that girls wear a swim suit underneath clothing and boys wear lightweight shorts that will allow easy transition from pool to field activities, etc. Bring Your Towel

Rain Plan

In the case of rain, children will be moved under the pavilion. If lightning is present we will move to the clubhouse until the lightning is passed. We will employ a 30 second flash-to-bang rule. Parents, please use your best judgment as to whether you should come and pick up your child from camp.
